Dear Achyut Kumar Allady, P.E.:

Congratulations! The Broward College Office of Supplier Relations & Diversity has received your firm's certification and validated the information from State of Florida - Office of Supplier Diversity.

Your W/MBE certification with State of Florida - Office of Supplier Diversity will expire on 5/18/2023.

During the certification period, please notify the Office of Supplier Relations and Diversity and your certifying agency immediately of any changes to your information during the certification period, such as: contact information, firm ownership, and managerial or operational control.

As a certified supplier, your company may be eligible for Broward College's Supplier Diversity Small Business (SDSB) Program. Registering in the College's supplier portal and completing the SDSB application will expand your visibility and opportunities with the College. If your company has a physical location within Broward, Palm Beach or Miami-Dade County, please take a few minutes to complete the SDSB application at broward.edu/supplierdiversity and return it to the Office of Supplier Relations and Diversity. Your firm may qualify for the following benefits:

- Consideration for 100% of the SDSB Criteria Point Percentage in the solicitation evaluation/selection process
- Invitation to Bid (ITB) responses may qualify you for a 10% price preference
- SDSB Set-Asides
- Assist businesses with preparing for business opportunities at Broward College and the wider community

If your company has already registered with the College and completed the SDSB application, thank you for your time and effort. Broward College provides access to supplier resources and procurement opportunities online at broward.edu/supplierdiversity. Should you have any questions, please contact the Office of Supplier Relations and Diversity at (954) 201-7824 or email SDC@broward.edu.

Sincerely,

Broward College Office of Supplier Relations & Diversity
